

I Will Be There

Another empty coffee cup
Another empty room
I never thought so long ago
That now would come so soon

I find another photograph
A baby on my knee
They always said... "it goes so fast..."
Before you know they leave"

Well if you ever lose your way
And if you fall

I will be there
Forever I swear
I will still be there

You'd tell me 'bout the dreams you had
You'd tell me where it hurt
You'd tell me...tell me everything
At times without a word

Well if you ever lose your way
Or if you fall

I will be there
Forever I swear
I will still be there

Through all the time and distance
And everything we do
I'll think of us both looking up
And seeing the same moon

Skin to skin and dust to dust
And all that comes between
Is part of everyone of us
And all the scattered seeds

After all is said and done
After all

I will be there
Forever I swear
I will still be there

Another empty coffee cup
Another empty room
I'll think about you looking up
And seeing the same moon
